

Copyright and Image Rights

18th CIMT Anniversary Symposium

Mainz/Germany

May 5-7, 2020

1. Posters, graphics, lectures are usually protected by international copyright laws. Each lecturer warrants that he holds the rights of use to the items used during his lecture (texts, photographs, graphics).
2. It is not permitted without express prior authorization by the author(s) to take pictures of posters, graphics, people, etc., and to transfer these pictures to third parties via social media (Facebook, Twitter,....) or webpages. The person taking the pictures must be able to provide proof of such authorization by the author(s) (e.g. author's mail). Protected material may only be used if the author(s) is mentioned by name.
3. Each participant agrees to indemnify CIMT against any claims for damages by third parties arising from the infringement of any rights by the participant.
4. Each participant agrees to allow CIMT to take pictures of him/her during the event, and he/she agrees to the use of such pictures for CIMT advertising purposes (Internet,...) and press releases.
